

there is no justification for this broadcasting company to make such as an obviously political attempt to undermine Senator Kerry.
This slanted program should not have been forced on the public. The FCC should have limited the broadcast of this program which is at best speculative.